mb S-eolm CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution sers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to them-selves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. MISCELLANEOUS READING

COURTING ON A RAILROAD THIRTY MILES AN HOUR .- An incident occurred on the Little Miami Railroad vesterday morning, which outstrips, in point of speed and enterprise, al-though in a somewhat different field, the lightning express, "fifty cents a mile," specitrain achievement which attended the delivery of the recent famous defalcation "report" in this city. The facts are about thus: A lady, somewhat passed that period of life which the world would term "young"-although she might differ with them-was on her way to this city, for purposes connected with active industry. At a point on the road a traveller took the train, who happened to enter the car in which the young lady occupi-ed a seat. After walking up and down between the seats the gentleman found no unoccupied seat, except the one-half of that upon which the lady had deposited her precious self and crinoline-the latter very modestly expansive. Making a virtue of necessity-a "stand-ee" berth or a little selfassurance-he modestly inquired if the lady had a fellow traveller, and took a seat. As the train flew along with express speed the two strangers entered into a cozy conversation, and mutual explanations. The gentleman was pleased, and the lady certainly did not pout. After other subjects had been discussed, and worn threadbare, the lady made inquiries as to the price of a sewing machine, and where such an article could be purchased in this city. The gentleman ven-tured the opinion that she had "better secure a husband first." This opened the way for another branch of conversation, and the broken field was industriously cultivated.

By the time the train arrived at the depo in this city, the gentleman had proposed and been accepted, although the lady afterwards declared she regarded it all as a good joke .-The parties separated; the gentleman, all in good earnest started for a license, and the lady made her way to a boarding house, on Broadway, above Third street, for a dinner. At two o'clock the gentleman returned with with a license and a Justice to the great astonishment of the fair one, and after a few tears and halfremonstrative expressions, she submitted with becoming modesty, and the Squire performed the little ceremony in a twinking.

Last evening the happy couple departed for Louisville, en route for New Orleans and California. If this is not a fast country, a search warrant would hardly succeed in finding one.—Cincinnati Gazette.
